

ONLY APB COVERS HARD NEWS

If you want to know why American Police Beat is so widely read and respected, just compare our news coverage with other national law enforcement magazines. Each issue is filled with “hard news” stories that affect real officers in their daily lives. Here are a few of the articles that have appeared in recent issues:

TECHNOLOGY

Data sharing technology - A great investigative tool
Radio Interoperability between agencies - Years away?
Using technology for better evidence collection
Protecting officers' private information on the Internet

HOT TOPICS

The scourge and impact of methamphetamine abuse
Increase in gas prices affects police ability to patrol
LAPD Sergeant returning from Iraq writes about “next wave” of terrorists
Officer-involved shootings - highlighting incidents and their aftermath upon police officers

EMPLOYMENT ISSUES

Why departments are having problems finding recruits
Threats to public sector pensions
Indiana deputies make less than civilian employees working at their agency
Hiring the new generation - changes to traditional policing

CONTROVERSIAL POLICIES

The role of civilian review boards
Are youth curfews legal?
Supreme Court rules on searches incident to “questioning” stops
Border security and the appropriate role of local law enforcement agencies in enforcing immigration laws

43 Thorndike Street - Floor 2 - Cambridge MA 02141
617-491-8878 | www.apbweb.com | Fax: 617-354-6515

